

Million Dollar Quartet

Information Sheet

As of 9/6/2019*

Arkansas Repertory Theatre strongly recommends educators read the script of the play to establish context for the content in the description below. The Rep exists to produce a diverse body of theatrical work of the highest artistic standards. We hope that our productions will entertain, challenge, and spark healthy discussions within the community. Please email education@therep.org if you have any further questions. Thank you for your support.

CONTENT

Characters Smoke Onstage	Yes	E-cigarettes
Characters Drink "Liquor"/"Beer" Onstage	Yes	Shots, alcohol, beer consumption
Drug Use Depicted	No
Violence Depicted/Referenced	No
Nudity or Partial Nudity	No
Sexual/Suggestive Content	Yes	Suggestive dancing and gestures, one reference to child marriage
Profanity	Yes	"Lawd a mercy", "Jesus wept", "Good God Awmighty", by God/for God's sake (5), shittin', ass (2), colored, Negro (2)

EFFECTS AND SENSORY INFORMATION

ONSTAGE Gunshots	No
OFFSTAGE Gunshots	No
Fog/Smoke	Yes	Atmospheric haze

SENSORY INFORMATION*

Lights	Yes	Bright lights on stage, darkness in audience seating, five brief moments of strobing lights (call or email the Box Office for more information about instances of strobe use)
Sounds	Yes	Onstage yelling
Music	Yes	Loud rock and roll throughout
Audience participation	Yes	Narrator speaks directly to the audience from the stage, a handkerchief is given to a patron on the front row

COURSE RECOMMENDATIONS

Music, Music History, Rock and Roll, American History, Musical Theatre, Singing, Dancing, Theatre, Drama, Technical Theatre, Acting, Directing, Fashion/Costume Design
--

Additional Notes and Information:

Topics of Discussion in the Play: Alcohol, tobacco use, divorce, child marriage, bathroom humor

* The exact use potentially sensory-disturbing production elements are not determined until at least one week prior to the opening of the show. The content of this sheet will be updated accordingly.