

Hello Dolly
Content Guidelines

Synopsis:

This Broadway blockbuster is golden-age musical theatre at its finest. Follow the romantic and comedic exploits of Dolly Gallagher-Levi, a turn-of-the-century matchmaker forging her own path in a world that constantly underestimates her. Boisterous and charming from start to finish, “put on your Sunday clothes” for The Rep’s concert production, performed at Robinson Center with the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra!

Other:

Please note this is a musical concert, not the traditional full-staging of Hello Dolly.

Language:

There is no profanity included in the play.

Smoking/Drinking:

There is language that references smoking in the musical scores.

Sex:

There is no reference to sex in this production.

Violence:

There is no violence depicted in this production.

Rating:

Rated G.